GRMS 300 German Studies Minor Capstone (1 Credit Hour)

In an independent study format, students write a 10-15 page paper that synthesizes the knowledge gained in their coursework into an interdisciplinary project, combining that knowledge with the student's other academic interests. Alternatively, students may secure a supervised internship at a German-related institution or organization that also lines up with their interests. Students must be near completion of most requirements for German Studies Minor in order to be eligible for enrollment.

Interdisciplinary Option: German Studies

Outcomes:

Interdisciplinary synthesis of coursework into a paper, or outcomes based on a specific internship, including a reflection component
